All Aboard to Miami!

Enter to win a FREE conference registration and/or train ride to FPC!

Details

The APA Florida First Coast Section is offering six stipends to cover conference registration fees, as well as complimentary round-trip Amtrak tickets from Jacksonville to Miami for the 2026 Florida Planning Conference. Members are encouraged to enter both drawings for a chance to receive these benefits.

Amtrak

The section will draw names for a FREE round-trip train ticket to Miami. (Worth $98.) We will coordinate and cover the cost of Amtrak tickets and transportation between the Miami station and the conference hotel. This is a great opportunity to travel together and connect with fellow planners. Space may be limited, and additional details about trip logistics will be shared with participants in advance.

Departure: Monday, Oct. 12 @ 9:49 am

Return: Friday, Oct. 16 @ 7:05 am

Submit the “Get Me to FPC” webform on the conference Hotel + Travel webpage or QR code by Sept. 11. Recipients will be randomly selected and notified prior to travel.
